

Air National Guard

Director: Lt. Gen. Craig R. McKinley
Headquarters: Arlington, Va.
Command Chief Master Sgt.: Chief Master Sgt. Richard A. Smith
Web address: www.ang.af.mil

Federal Mission

Maintains well-trained, well-equipped units available for prompt utilization. Enforces federal authority, suppresses insurrection and defends the nation when called to federal service by the president, Congress or both. Units augment the Air Force by participating in operations and exercises worldwide by direction of the chief, National Guard Bureau, air staff, major commands or joint/unified commands.

State Mission

Provides assistance during emergencies such as natural disasters and civil disturbances when required by the governor. Under state law, provides protection of life and property, and preserves peace, order and public safety. Commanded by the governors of the 50 states, Puerto Rico, Guam, Virgin Islands and the commanding general of the District of Columbia. Each governor is represented in the state or territory chain of command by an adjutant general through a joint forces headquarters. The ANG Readiness Center is a field operating agency at Andrews AFB, Md.
